THE ORIGINAL — STILL THE BEST

Julius Simon and Harry Germanow, Co-founders

GERMANOW-SIMON, a family-owned and operated company since 1916, manufactured the first plastic watch crystal in the early 1920's. This innovation has made watches more durable throughout the last 90 years. The company's founders were committed to supplying quality products, providing excellent customer service, maintaining a work environment that values its employees, and supporting community social and educational institutions. These traditions continue through today.

It is our mission to maintain the lead in the manufacture and distribution of quality watch crystals, tools, magnifiers, precision applicator adhesives, and related products for new and vintage watches. It is our goal to provide excellent customer service and fast order turnaround, to explore new products, and to expand the availability of our current product lines.

We hope that this catalog will continue to serve as a definitive reference tool for the watchmaking and watch repair industry. We look forward to your patronage.
